

Little Shadow Catcher

Photographs of D.F. Barry

An exhibition of frontier photographs by one of the best-known artists of the American West: D.F. Barry. Printed from the original glass plate negatives, the images represent Barry's prominence as the primary photodocumentarian of General Custer and the Seventh US Cavalry in the field, his Sioux opponents, and many others from the late American frontier.

Rental Fee: $7,000

Booking Period: 8 weeks

Size: 200 - 300 linear feet

Availability: Through 2013

Contents: 48 framed images; seven text panels; labels

MUSEUM OF THE ROCKIES EXHIBITIONS

Nicole Becker / nbecker@montana.edu | 600 West Kagy Boulevard, Bozeman, Montana 59717 | T: +1 406.994.2108