

SHEEP RANCHING IN PARADISE JON HABERSTROH

This exhibition of black and white photographs from the Museum of the Rockies' archive, documents the operations of the Harvat Ranch in Paradise Valley, Montana—the gateway to Yellowstone National Park. From spring lambing, shearing, high-mountain grazing and herding, this exhibition chronicles sheep ranching through the beautifully aesthetic photographs of John C. Haberstroh.

Rental Fee: $5,500

Length: 8 - 10 weeks

Exhibit Size: 200 - 300 linear feet

Availability: Through 2013

Contents: 51 framed images, three exhibit text panels; labels

MUSEUM OF THE ROCKIES EXHIBITIONS

Nicole Becker / nbecker@montana.edu | 600 West Kagy Boulevard, Bozeman, Montana 59717 | T: +1 406.994.2108