Bountiful Fall

Memory on Glass
D.F. Barry on Standing Rock, 1878-1891

September 23, 2017 – January 21, 2018
Dear Members,

We had a terrific summer, thanks to you, our members. Visitation has been steady and strong, driven by our live animal exhibit, CROCS: Ancient Predators in a Modern World. The Living History Farm welcomed a record number of guests and everyone loved this summer’s shows at the Taylor Planetarium.

The 16th Annual Wine & Culinary Classic sold out as more than 400 guests came together to sip, savor, and support MOR’s Changing Exhibits Fund. On September 9, over 30 boats will fish and float to fund All Things Yellowstone at your Museum. With school is back in session, we will host thousands of students, free of charge, through the Opening Doors for Montana Schoolchildren Fund. We are immensely grateful for the gifts that you give to sustain Museum of the Rockies and our mission to be the place where all are inspired to engage in life-long learning and the process of discovery.

This September we will open Memory on Glass: D.F. Barry on Standing Rock, 1878 - 1891, which was created and produced by our very own Curator of History, Michael Fox, and MOR Exhibitions. The exhibit will be paired with Roots of Wisdom: Native Knowledge. Shared Science.

There’s a lot to look forward to in 2018, too. There will be numerous opportunities for you and your family to have fun with the four changing exhibitions - Guitars, Julius Caesar, Polar Obsession, and Into the Arctic - in addition to our regular exhibits and programming.

So stop by this fall, stay tuned for more next year, and enjoy all your membership has to offer!

Sincerely,

Sheldon McKamey
Executive Director

When was the last time you stared down a hungry crocodile? If you can’t remember or the answer is never, that’s about to change. Experience the world of crocodilians in tropical, naturalistic habitats!

This family-friendly exhibit presents cutting-edge science where you will be immersed in the sights and sounds of this stealthy aquatic predator. Come eye-to-eye with living reptiles such as a Siamese crocodile, an African dwarf crocodile, three Central African slender-snouted crocodiles, and six American alligator hatchlings!

Thank you to the following sponsors who support this exhibition.

Last Day is September 10!
David F. Barry photographed Native American men and women, frontier scouts, soldiers, trappers, missionaries and other pioneers, recording the panorama of people who populated the northern plains in the late 19th century. Barry recorded forts, battlefields, and the Standing Rock Indian Reservation in present-day North Dakota.

Barry developed long-term relationships with some of his Lakota and Dakota subjects, who called him Icastinyanka Cikala Hanzi, “Little Shadow Catcher.”

This exhibition examines Barry’s work as he recorded the creation of the Standing Rock Reservation and the ongoing controversies that continue to surround American Indians and their relationship with the U.S. government to this day.

Memory on Glass: D.F. Barry on Standing Rock, 1878-1891 was produced by MOR Exhibitions and Curator of History, Michael Fox.

September 23, 2017 – January 21, 2018

Overcoming centuries of environmental and cultural challenges can make for unexpected partnerships that result in extraordinary outcomes. In Roots of Wisdom, stories from four indigenous communities are brought to life in real-world examples of how traditional knowledge and cutting-edge western science can be blended to provide complementary solutions to contemporary concerns.

From restoring ecosystems to rediscovering traditional foods and crafts, Roots of Wisdom invites guests to understand the important issues that indigenous cultures face, discover innovative ways native peoples are problem-solving, and contributing to the growing movement towards sustainability and the reclamation of age-old practices.

Sponsored by Alycia Patencio-Travis & Reuben Travis.

Roots of Wisdom: Native Knowledge. Shared Science., was produced and is toured by the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI). The exhibit was made possible with funds provided by the National Science Foundation.

Join us for the Members Only Opening of Memory on Glass & Roots of Wisdom

Friday, September 29 | 5 – 7pm | Members Only

Enjoy a sneak preview of our newest exhibits. While you’re here, be sure to catch our newest show at the Taylor Planetarium – Escher’s Universe at 5:30, 6:00, and 6:30pm. It’s just one of the many benefits of your MOR Membership.
Dear Museum of the Rockies Patron,

With the arrival of shorter days and cooler weather, everyone at Museum of the Rockies gets the “back to school” feeling, regardless of how long it’s been since graduation.

Here at MOR, we fervently believe that every Montana child, regardless of income or geographical location, should be able to visit the Museum to learn, explore, and grow. As committed as we are to making our vision a reality, our location comes with unique challenges. Did you know that more than half of our state’s 830 schools enroll less than 100 students? Children who grow up in small remote communities seldom have the chance to leave their day-to-day learning environment. That’s why we created the Opening Doors for Montana Schoolchildren Fund.

The Opening Doors Fund covers admission fees and helps alleviate field trip transportation costs for all Montana public, private, tribal, and home-schooled children from the 56 counties throughout the state. Since the inception of this private fund, the Museum has welcomed more than 100,000 schoolchildren through its doors.

In 2016, we were able to raise funds from many generous givers, including first-time donors Susan and Thomas Ingeman, the Beim Foundation, Verizon, the Sheehy Family Foundation, and the Cross Charitable Foundation.

With your help, we could bring even more young people into our Museum to discover our changing and permanent exhibits. We can open our doors to more children and inspire them with moments that teach them to see the world differently or even to change the world.

We would be so pleased if you took the chance to make a gift to support the Opening Doors for Montana Schoolchildren Fund. Please give by using the attached envelope. Or you can donate to our General Fund.

Please know how much everyone here appreciates your kindness!

Sincerely,

Kathryn Hohmann
Director of Philanthropy

The Hot and Energetic Universe
This show presents the fascinating world of High Energy Astrophysics as it plays a key role in understanding our hot and mighty universe. High Energy Astrophysics probes hot gas in clusters of galaxies and super-massive black holes in the centers of galaxies. Learn about your hot and energetic universe through striking images and realistic, immersive visualizations!

Beyond the Stars
In our live night sky show, we’ll take a look at where you can find the planets and the constellations. We’ll also look a little deeper into the skies and identify what can you find with binoculars and telescopes. This fall, we’ll continue our popular tours of the night sky.

One World, One Sky: Big Bird’s Adventure*
Follow along with Big Bird, Elmo, and their friend from China, Hu Hu Zhu, as they take you on a journey of discovery to learn about the Big Dipper, North Star, the sun, and the moon. This show is excellent for our younger viewers as it aims to nurture a child’s natural sense of wonder about the night sky.

* This will be the final showing of One World One Sky in the Taylor Planetarium.

Escher’s Universe – New Show!
Join us on a virtual trip to Maurits Cornelis Escher’s studio where his most iconic works are displayed. From this intimate and emotional place, we’ll visit Escher’s particular universe, and be surprised by his ability to join science and art. We will see his use of mathematics, astronomy, optics, crystallography, and geometry to explain very complex concepts addressed by Cosmology artistically.

Season of Light
If you haven’t seen this show in our digital planetarium, make sure to check out its all-new look! Learn about many holiday customs that make the winter more festive. Yule logs, Christmas trees, the Hanukkah Menorah, luminaries, and Santa Claus were all taken from different cultures to fill the dark months of the year with more light.

Star Viewing
Friday, October 20 | 8 - 10pm | Free to the Public
Join us for an observing session on the Bair Plaza in front of the Museum. Saturn will be up before 9pm, after that we will be looking at star clusters and the Andromeda galaxy. (This event is weather permitting.)
In 1989, the Tinsley House was relocated to Museum of the Rockies, and the history of Montana’s homesteading era was recreated at our Living History Farm. Our skilled costumed interpreters will take you back in time as they cook over a wood-burning stove, demonstrate preparation and cooking skills with recipes from the 1890s, tend to the Heirloom Garden, and forge iron in the blacksmith’s shop. Take time to enjoy the beautiful sights of the garden, smells of home cooking, and the history of a time gone by that lives on today.

The Living History Farm is free to all for the entire season! While the main museum will still charge regular admission fees, bring guests, friends, and visitors to the Living History Farm for free!

Near Eastern & Aegean Interaction During the Iron Age
Monday, September 18 | Dr. James Osborne, Oriental Institute at the University of Chicago

One of the most exciting developments in the Mediterranean archaeology of the past decade has been a reevaluation of how the Near Eastern world interacted with its Aegean neighbors and contemporaries during the Iron Age (ca. 1200-600 BCE). For the late second millennium, there is now accumulating evidence that members of the so-called “Sea Peoples,” who famously migrated to Israel and became the biblical Philistines, also settled in Cilicia and the Amuq Valley of southern Turkey, greatly transforming our understanding of this migration event. Meanwhile, for the early first millennium BCE, archaeologists have begun to realize just how influential the Syro-Anatolian city-states of the East were on the cultural development of the classical world to the West, which is becoming more clear with new excavations and fresh interpretations of old finds.

Who Was A. B. Hammond & Why Should You Care?
Thursday, October 5 | Gregory Gordon

In an overview of his new book, When Money Grew on Trees: A. B. Hammond and the Age of the Timber Baron, Historian Greg Gordon will explore the legacy and reputation of one of Montana’s most despised, yet important, historical figures. In this biographical sketch of the infamous lumberman, Gordon examines the ecological costs of frontier capitalism and how the struggle over natural resources gave rise to the two most pervasive forces in American life: the federal government and the modern corporation. Copies of the author’s books will be available for sale and autographing available following the presentation.
HOPS & HISTORY

Brews & The Big Sky: Montana Made, Montana Brewed

Brews & The Big Sky explores the unique history of the Big Sky state paired with unique Montana brews. This adults-only winter series enters its third season with a new program format.

Enjoy a night out as the Museum becomes a lively venue for drinks and local history. Sample beer from a featured Montana brewery, enjoy light appetizers, and wander through MOR’s exhibitions.

New for this season, enjoy informal gallery talks with Curator of History, Michael Fox, at 6 & 6:30pm in the Paugh Regional History Hall or the Changing Exhibit Gallery. Explore items from MOR’s collections, ask questions, and learn more about Montana’s past. This popular adults-only evening at MOR is the perfect way to discover great brews and the history of the big sky state.

Preschool groups are welcome to participate in the Museum’s School Field Trip programs instead of Tours for Tots. Please call 406-994-5257 or email visitmor@montana.edu at least three weeks in advance to arrange your visit.

Sensational Babies (Birth – 36 Months)
Every Wednesday | 10 – 11am | Redstart Classroom
Free for Members, $5 non-members

Read, talk, sing, and play with your baby through sensory awareness activities and explorations designed specifically for newborns, one, and two-year-olds. On the first Wednesday of every month, learn a new set of signs to enhance your baby’s cognitive, social and emotional development. This popular Museum program promotes learning language skills with physical and social development.

*Sensational Babies will not be held on Wednesday, December 27, 2017. This program will resume on Wednesday, January 3, 2018.

School’s Out Days

MSU EVENTS

30 Days of Bozeman
Wednesday, September 6 | 9am – 5pm
Free to MSU students
MSU has created a new program to bridge the gap between businesses and new students who may be unfamiliar with all that Bozeman has to offer. MOR welcomes all MSU students for free on September 6 with a valid student ID.

MOR After Dark
Friday, October 27 | 9pm – Midnight | Free to MSU students
Experience MOR after dark in a special night just for MSU students. Enjoy free pizza, raffle prizes, a photo booth with MOR's mascot Rocky Rex, and more - all free with a valid student ID. This program is sponsored by the MSU Office of Health Advancement. No pre-registration is required.

MSU MEMBERSHIP & ADMISSION

$36 Annual MSU Student Membership Pass
For $36 per year, Montana State University students enjoy unlimited Museum admission along with all of the benefits of regular membership, including entrance to 400 other ASTC member museums across the world. Valid Student ID required.

Reduced Student Admission Every Day
Daily | $10 admission for MSU students with valid ID
Montana State University students enjoy reduced admission every day. Present your MSU ID at the Front Desk and receive admission for two consecutive days for just $10.

MSU EDUCATION

Academic Field Trips
MOR offers free field trips or independent academic visits for students for all MSU courses and special programming. Courses may schedule special planetarium shows, custom guided tours or other programming during each visit. Faculty and instructors must pre-register at museumoftherockies.org or by calling 406.994.5257.

Student Internships & Employment
MOR offers a variety of internships for both undergraduate and graduate students as well as paid student employee positions. Gain career experience while contributing to the community. Visit museumoftherockies.org/employment for current internship and employment opportunities.
